

February 17 to March 15, 2021

Live streaming activities will occur from Feb 17-21, 2021 (exclusively)

Poe in the Snow

(Montreal +)

A four part Ensemble

Presented by: Quagmire Productions

About —

“Poe in the Snow” is a selection of short adaptations of the works of Edgar Allan Poe. Performed in four parts by an ensemble cast from Across the globe.

CONTENT WARNINGS FOR ALL PARTS.

This production touches on themes of: Violence, Sexual & Explicit language, Abuse, Mental illness, Blood, Death , Alcohol & Drugs.

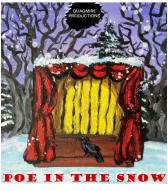

The Raven

A child is forced to bear the harsh realities of pandemic-induced isolation. A passive witness to pain, anger, violence and loneliness, seeing all yet helpless to stop it.

Actors Reading Poe

8 actors spanning 6 cities and 4 countries perform 8 poems by Edgar Allan Poe. With a stylistic and cultural diversity of young artistic creators at the peak of their game, this poetic reading explores sadness, strangeness, and loss

Continued on next page

Poe in the Snow - Continued

A four part Ensemble

The Mask of the Red Death

A theatrical fusion dance adaptation of The Masque of The Red Death. A mysterious guest arrives at Prince Prospero's masquerade ball, but beware as this guest brings more to the ball than meets the eye.

The Cask of Amontillado

A modern retelling of the Poe's classic tale of status, revenge, and cold-blooded murder.

Cast & Credits —

Visual Design

Samantha Gold

The Raven

Adapted & Directed by: Erin Farmer-Perrine

Technical Direction & Stage Management by: Brendan Mirotchnick

Director of Photography & Camera Operations by: Curtis Lins

The Raven played by:Owen Perrine

Man played by:Alexandre Perrine

Woman played by:Erin Farmer-Perrine

Watcher played by:Samantha Gold

Actors Reading Poe

Concept, Direction, and Dramaturgy by Riley Palanca

Featuring the work of: Phi Palmos, Antonio J. Bavaro,

William Elvin, BlxckCxsper, Cat Kidd,Sigmund Pecho, Ian

McRoberts, Calder Levine & Russ Cabico

The Mask of the Red Death

Adapted, Directed, Choreographed & Performed by:

Calixta Starr

The Cask of Amontillado

Adapted & Directed by: Eric Wrazen

Mme Montresor played by:Kathy Slamen

For more information about Quagmire Productions:

